

Newton at Cambridge.
Portrait of Isaac Newton in his own hair, painted in Cambridge by Godfrey Kneller in 1689.

103
1665 and 1666 were
years of Plague, and Newton spent the times
when the University was closed at home.
Woolsthorpe Manor. An early 18th-century sketch by William Stukeley of Newton's mother's house.

